Chasing Images: poems by Jeffrey Lickson

Jeffrey Lickson was born in New York City, grew up in Connecticut, and has lived with his wife, an artist and retired professor, in Houston, Texas for the past 25 years. He has two children and five grandchildren. He graduated from Johns Hopkins University, the University of Pennsylvania, School of Social Work, and earned a doctorate in instructional systems from Florida State University.

His careers include social work in child welfare and mental health, instructional design and management consulting in healthcare, aviation, government, high technology, and the petroleum industry, and community college and university teaching. He is the author of David Charles: the Story of the Quincy 5, The Continuously Improving Self: a Personal Guide to TQM, and I Am Cautious, a book of poetry. The judges selected Jeff to be a Juried Poet in October's Houston Poetry Fest 2009.

The Mission of Poets Northwest

Founded in 1986, by Susan Daubenspeck, Betty Kersh and Claire Ottenstein-Ross, our main objective is to facilitate and inspire poets to write more poetry. We provide information about current poetry contests, feature guest poets on a regular basis, study the masters of creative verse, and encourage members. Poets are also encouraged to read their poems at each meeting. Membership is $12 annually (Jan-Dec) & $6 for 12 & under. Meetings are held the 2nd Saturday of each month from 10 AM to noon at the Cypress Creek Christian Community Center, 6823 Cypresswood Dr., Spring, TX 77379

 2010 Dues are due! $12 annually. Make checks payable to Poets Northwest. You can bring them to the March meeting. This will be the last newsletter for those who have not paid their dues, so please write your check and bring it to the meeting or mail it to Jim Hale.

 Claire Ottenstein-Ross is back at home from the hospital and in great spirits – we've missed you Claire!

 PNW 2009 Anthology – *Poets Northwest Inspired

If you haven't purchased or picked up our new Anthology, they will be available at the March meeting and are $6 each.

 Poetry Society of Texas (PST)

Student Contest guidelines are available at www.poetrysocietyoftexas.org. All entries must be received by March 1st, 2010.
